JOIN FAGFORBUNDET

(Norwegian Union of Municipal and General Employees)!

When working in Norway, it is common to join an employee union along with your colleagues. Fagforbundet is the largest employee organisation in Norway. We negotiate fair wages, help you secure a full-time and permanent position, offer support if you experience discrimination at work, and much more.

compassion • unity • solidarity

Membership of Fagforbundet works the same as an insurance scheme. You pay a small, monthly membership fee to your union – and if issues arise at work that you are not able to manage yourself, the union will help you.

- Fagforbundet's union stewards follow developments to ensure that you receive the wages and pension you are entitled to.
- We make sure that your working hours are correct and that you are paid what you are owed for overtime work.
- If you feel you have been unfairly treated at work, union stewards from Fagforbundet can help you.
- If you wish to enrol in continuing education or a Norwegian course, you will be refunded half of your expenses. This is called a bursary, and you can apply for this each year.
- When you pay a membership fee to Fagforbundet, you will also be offered good insurance policies, such as household contents insurance. This insurance is inexpensive and one of the best policies in Norway.
- As a member of Fagforbundet, you can attend courses or conferences, where you can learn more about your occupation and about working life in Norway.
- Fagforbundet welcomes students, apprentices and employees as members.

In short: Fagforbundet fights for your right to a good working environment and fair wages. When you join Fagforbundet, we will become an even larger group of working people who can demand fair pay, a secure job and good working conditions for everyone.
